

*Save $250 when you sign up for a Plico solar + battery solution!**

The cost of living is going up, but you could be sending you power bills down. Start saving today with a Plico solar + battery solution.

Generate clean energy during the day then store it for use at night. Plico makes clean energy accessible for all West Aussies with no big upfront costs and provides servicing and maintenance for the 10 years you're with them. Already have existing panels? You can retrofit a Plico battery to any system!

Plus, because they're friends of ours, they're going to waive the $250 membership fee* when you join.
